

THE KOEHLER ORGANIZATION

For more than four decades, The Koehler Organization has been a staple in the commercial and industrial construction industry on Long Island. With four specialized operating entities including; Dominion Construction Corp., Koehler Masonry Corp., Keyland Mechanical Corp. and Atlantic Crane, LLC, The Koehler Organization continues their tradition of excellence and leadership in their field.

John Koehler, David J. Koehler, Thomas Koehler, Charles Rumpf and Frederick W. Koehler III, represent the third generation of family interest in the organization. From land development, space planning to design skills, Dominion Construction leads The Koehler Organization, operating as general contractor. Clients include Fortune 500 companies, respected architects and designers as well as not-for-profit organizations. Koehler Masonry Corp. has also been a pivotal part to their success offering experienced, skilled craftsmanship and technical expertise to both the industrial and commercial needs of the market.

Over the course of a twelve year relationship, State Bank has been a long time financial supporter of this third generation organization. State Bank brings the same kind of professional financial expertise to The Koehler Organization as they bring to their industry.

"State Bank really makes us feel at ease. They have a complete understanding of our industry and give us all the support and personal attention we need, when we need it."
